I beg to state that I have been permitted to work for the Ganapathi Institute of Commerce, during my spare time, without prejudice to my office duties, under section 10 of the Public Servants Conduct Rules. This permission was granted for the years 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924, and it expires on the 30th of April 1925. Therefore I beg to request that permission may be kindly extended further on for three years.

As to the nature of work done by me during the past 6 years in this Branch, I request the Supdt. to very kindly certify. I beg to assure that my private work out of office hours has not and will not, in the least, interfere with my official duties. Invariably I am working overtime in the office and am always available for Camp duty. I solicit further permission for a period of three years.

His work is quite satisfactory. The permission granted does not in any way affect his work in this office.
